

Deep Learning

6/6 questions correct

Quiz passed!

Continue Course \(/learn/ml-foundations/supplement/sf001/download-the-ipython-notebook-used-in-this-lesson-to-follow-along\)

Back to Week 6 \(/learn/ml-foundations/home/week/6\)

1.

Which of the following statements are true? (Check all that apply)

2.

A simple linear classifier can represent which of the following functions?
(Check all that apply)

3.

Which of the the following neural networks can represent the following function? Select all that apply.

(x_1 AND x_2) OR (NOT x_1 AND NOT x_2)

4.

Which of the following statements is true? (Check all that apply)

5.

If you have lots of images of different types of plankton labeled with their species name, and lots of computational resources, what would you expect to perform better predictions:

6.

If you have a few images of different types of plankton labeled with their species name, what would you expect to perform better predictions:

